meet Jae-

Hailing from the vibrant and challenging neighborhoods of south Fort Worth, Texas, Jae Marzett is a powerhouse of creativity and resilience. After graduating from the University of North Texas in 2016, Jae tied the knot with her military veteran husband, Thyrl Marzett, marking a year of new beginnings. As a busy mom of three—Haven, Maxen, and Zaden—Jae juggles family life with her passion for design & real estate.

In 2019, Jae discovered her flair for flipping homes while helping her aunt on a project. By 2020, she and her husband had transformed their first property, sparking a love for decorating and renovation that led to the founding of her own interior design and staging company, Interiors by Jae. With an entrepreneurial spirit, Jae ventured into real estate, launching short-term rentals and most recently earning her licenses as a general contractor and realtor.

From humble beginnings to home design maven, Jae is proof that dreams can be built—one flip at a time!
